Corruption Not Caused By Dems Alone, Adlai Says

Says Public's Apathy Brings On Misconduct

Golden Future Under
Dems Promised; GOP
Called 'Party Of Past'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson went on the offensive today with a denial, framed in his strongest language, that Democrats alone are responsible for corruption and misconduct in the federal government.

"Whose fault is it," he asked, "that we get what we deserve in government?"

And his answer was: "It is the fault of you, the people. Your public servants serve you right; indeed often they serve you better than your apathy and indifference deserves."

This was the core of Stevenson's answer to one of the central issues in the battle for the presidency. He quoted his Republican opponent as saying it is "the only issue."

Stevenson devoted a whole speech to it in Los Angeles yesterday. In a second speech here, he painted a picture of the United States 20 years from now, promised a golden future, and said of the Republicans:

"They have always been afraid of tomorrow. Seldom has there been a bold idea for building America bigger and stronger for the future but that Republican voices are raised saying, 'You can't do that.'"

Stevenson carried his campaign today into the Southwest, heading for Arizona and New Mexico. He plans to be in his Springfield headquarters late Saturday.

His two Los Angeles speeches were foundation stones in the campaign he is building.

In the first, his effort was to destroy the Republican argument that the Democrats alone are to blame for corruption in Washington.

In the second, he sought to identify his party with progress, and to prove that the Republicans are "the party of the past."

Analyzing the question of corruption in public office he made these points:

1. The American people have a moral responsibility.

"You are not going to clean up

Phone Co. Continues Rate Increase Plea

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—The General Telephone Co. continued its plea before the state utilities commission here today for a $1,300,000 annual rate increase.

On completion of the company case the commission will continue the hearing until Sept. 24.

At that time protestants who have charged the company with poor service, will be heard.

The company operates 138 exchanges in 60 Ohio counties.

Thursday, Earl Carter, Indianapolis consulting engineer, said all of the company's exchanges are physically capable of rendering "reasonably good service." He said his estimate did not include company personnel.

The company said it needs the rate hike to complete a $10 1/2 million dollar improvement program.

Members of the Legion Auxiliary will meet at the hall at 8 p.m. this evening to pay respects to Miss Agnes French.

PUT TRIBE ON YANKS' SHIRTTAIL—Jubilant after the Cleveland Indians' 1-0 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics in Cleveland Municipal stadium, pitcher Mike Garcia gives second baseman Roberto Avila a big bear hug in the dressing room. The victory put the Tribe only one-half game away from the idle, league-leading New York Yankees. The two-hitter was Garcia's third straight shutout and his 20th win of the year. Avila won the game with a fourth-inning home run.

Boy Dies Of Polio, 7 Other Children In Family Stricken

MORRILL, Neb. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers remained in virtual seclusion in their silent farm home today, burdened with grief over the death of their eldest son and anxiety over their seven other children, all stricken with polio.

They could hardly speak as they went to a funeral home last night to view the body of their dead son, Robert Eugene, 11.

Robert died Wednesday, less than 24 hours after he had joined his 5-year-old sister, Janet, in the polio ward of a Scottsbluff, Neb., hospital.

Private funeral services for Robert were to be held this afternoon.

"Everyone is just 'wonderful' said the 41-year-old father as he haltingly told how neighbors and civic organizations had quietly moved to help and to share the financial burden that has been placed upon the income of his 120-acre farm and his work as a local laborer.

He told how Dr. E. E. Anderson of Lyman, the family doctor, had stayed with Robert from the time the boy was hospitalized until his death, and how the doctor has remained almost constantly with the other Rogers children since then.

The mother, obviously terrified, could scarcely speak.

Dr. Anderson said he had not had time to analyze the case histories of the stricken family, but he pointed out that they lived in a sparsely settled area with few outside contacts and that the children had not yet started to school.

The seven children in the hospital still did not know today that their brother was dead. As soon as the parents were told Robert had died, they quickly took the other children to the hospital for examinations without telling them the sad news.

The children were placed in the isolation ward and since then the parents have seen them only once — through the doors of the isolation ward.

The only comforting word the grief-stricken couple has had is a hospital report late last night that all seven children are improving—even 5-year-old Janet, who had been critically ill.

Although polio struck all eight of the Rogers children, it is not a record for polio cases in a single family.

At Mapleton, Ia., 11 of the 14 children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thiel have had polio this summer. Only one of the 12 children still at home escaped the disease. Two still are hospitalized.

Ex-U. S. Revenue Official Faces Trial For Income Tax Evasion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Daniel A. Bolich, a big man of commanding voice and florid countenance resigned last November as assistant revenue commissioner after 29 years service with the bureau. The resignation came in the midst of a congressional inquiry. Bolich, 52, said he was in ill health.

In Brooklyn yesterday, a special federal grand jury indicted Bolich. It accused him of cheating the revenue bureau out of $7,444 in personal income taxes. It said he paid $6,883 taxes on reported income of $54,771 from 1946 through 1950, when the total should have been $83,314 and the taxes $14,328.

If convicted, Bolich would face a maximum penalty of 25 years' imprisonment and a $50,000 fine. He was not reached for comment.

Bolich was an unwilling witness earlier this year before a congressional subcommittee looking into tax scandals. He refused to answer any questions.

During the inquiry, Bolich emerged as a man with $31.50 shirts, expensive cars and two luxurious furnished homes—one of them, valued at $20,000, an admitted gift.

Investigators revealed that, during the five-year period, 1946-50, Bolich spent $115,000 when his government salary totaled only $52,000.

Bolich refused to explain these or other matters when summoned last April before the House ways and means subcommittee investigating the revenue bureau.

County Fair Features Steer Scramble, 4-H King, Queen Crowning

Crowning of the 4-H king and queen and a steer scramble this afternoon will feature 4-H and Kids Day at the 107th Columbiana County Fair at Lisbon.

Officials of the fair have described this year's event as one of the best in recent years. Over 5,000 attended yesterday. One of the largest crowds in years filled the grandstand last night. The fair will end Saturday night.

This morning's events include a pony-pulling contest and draft horse and pony judging. The king and queen will be crowned this afternoon when 4-H awards will also be presented.

The steer scramble will be held at 2:30 in front of the grandstand. Members of the 4-H Clubs and the Future Farmers of America will try to capture the steers and the two succeeding will raise them for a year. The steers will be sold at next year's fair, with the profits going to the youths.

Horse Show At 7
The daily livestock and machinery parade will be held at 6:30, followed by a western horse show at 7. Free acts in a variety show will be staged at 8:30.

Howard Blanchard of Kensington took first in yesterday's pulling contest for heavy draft teams when his 3,400-pounders pulled 4,500 pounds nine feet five inches. Seven were entered in the contest.

Dr. Howard, owned and driven by Gene Brown of North Benton, won both heats in the first of three harness races held yesterday afternoon before a large crowd. He was timed in 2:16 in the two-year.

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—U. N. negotiators today demanded and got a seventh straight week-long recess in the Korean armistice talks.

No progress on the truce-blocking issue of prisoner exchange was reported at a heated 32-minute session — the first since Sept. 4. The next meeting was set for Sept. 20.

The calm at the Panmunjom neutral zone was shattered late yesterday when a Communist soldier crashed roadblocks in a 45-mile-an-hour dash to surrender to U. S. military police.

Told of this second Communist surrender in a week near Panmunjom, Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior U. N. truce delegate, smiled:

"I don't care how many come to our side, but they ought to watch the speed limit."

Didn't Mention Surrender
Harrison said the Reds made no mention of the surrender at today's armistice session.

But North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist delegate, again accused the Allies of murdering Red prisoners of war.

Harrison replied with another offer for the Communists to verify for themselves the no-repatriation sentiment among Communist soldiers captured by the Allies.

Of some 20,000 Chinese in U. N. stockades, about 15,000 have said they prefer death to rejoining Communism. The Reds insist that all be returned.

"You demand as your price for an armistice that we hand over to you a few thousand Chinese who are deathly afraid of returning to your control," Harrison told Nam Il.

Orchardmen To Meet Here Tuesday Night
Orchardmen of Columbiana, Mahoning and other nearby counties will attend a meeting Tuesday night at 8 in the First Methodist Church to discuss the apple crop and the market situation.

Ohio Senator Promises Aid In GOP Campaign

Taft Calls Stevenson "Left-Wing" After Talk With Eisenhower

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said today he and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower are in substantial agreement on all issues and that he will "speak anywhere to the extent of my ability" to further the Republican presidential nominee's campaign.

Sen. Taft said he is convinced Eisenhower "will carry out the policies of the Republican platform."

He said he was "completely satisfied" Eisenhower would give the United States a good administration.

Taft called the Democratic candidate, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, "a representative of the left wing and a left-winger himself."

Taft also said he is convinced Eisenhower believes in the principles of a statement adopted by the Republican Steering Committee in Congress.

He told a news conference: "I cannot say I agree with all of Gen. Eisenhower's views on foreign policy but our differences are merely differences of degree."

Matter Of Spending
Later, in answer to a question, he said the degree was largely a matter of spending. He declined to enlarge, saying he would discuss his views of foreign policy in his own speeches.

Today's breakfast conference at Eisenhower's Columbia University home was the first face-to-face meeting of the two since Eisenhower defeated Taft for the nomination in Chicago last July.

Saying he, himself, would speak "on a national broadcast and speak anywhere to the extent of my ability," Taft urged all Americans "who have confidence in my judgment" to support the Republican ticket.

To Reduce Spending
He said he and Gen. Eisenhower agreed "to reduce drastically government expenditures" to the point where the federal budget would be down to 70 billion dollars in the fiscal year of 1954 and 60 billion in 1955.

122 Pints Of Blood Given Here Thursday

Blood urgently needed for the armed forces was donated by 122 persons, including a Korean war veteran and six Salem firemen, when the Bloodmobile paid a visit here Thursday. Red Cross officials said today. The American Legion home served as headquarters.

Melrose Clark of Salem was the veteran who gave one of the 122 pints of blood. One hundred sixty-two were scheduled to donate blood, but many were unable to give because of colds and various other reasons. No quota had been set.

Last May 144 pints were donated when the Bloodmobile unit was here. The unit will be back, Friday, Dec. 5, from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Red Cross officials today expressed appreciation to the motor corps, trained nurses, canteen helpers, staff and volunteer nurses aides, hostesses and others who participated in Thursday's collection.

5 Dead, 2 Lost In Texas Flood

Heavy Rains Make
Torrents Of Streams

BOERNE, Tex. (AP) — Streams were receding in this fabled hill country of Southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following drought-blocking rains.

But downstream, outside the hill country, Luling on the San Marcos River was reported to be in trouble. The Department of Public Safety said an undetermined number of people were in danger in the area and dispatched amphibious equipment to the scene.

Downpours that measured up to 23 inches in 24 hours had sent roaring torrents down river and creek beds that had been dusty and cracked. Highway and railroad bridges were washed out, trains and buses stalled, livestock drowned, low-lying areas flooded, communications downed and residents were sent scurrying for roof tops and high ground.

There was no estimate of damage from official sources but it was expected to be high. The rains were beneficial to grazing lands but too late to help drought-ridden cotton and grain.

Helicopters and rowboats were used to take about 100 passengers from a stalled Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad train at Solms, south of New Braunfels. No one was injured. The "copters also lifted stranded residents from the roof-tops of their homes.

At least five towns in the Southwest and South Central Texas areas — old stomping grounds of Indian — conquering, gold-hunting Francisco Coronado and his Spanish legions — had been isolated by the flood waters. Department of Public Safety officials said disrupted communications made it uncertain whether there were still towns in danger of further damage.

The floods struck two areas, but the hill country apparently took the brunt of the beating, as San Saba, Fredericksburg, Blanco, Boerne, Seguin, Johnson City and Marble Falls were nearly or completely isolated at times. Today evacuees were returning to their homes under skies that in some places threatened more rain.

The hard steady rains came suddenly to an area which a few days before was seared and thirsty from a two-year dearth of showers. Most of the towns heaviest hit by the floods reported from 10 to 20 inches of rain. Some had not had three inches in the last year.

Waters which swept two cars from the highways yesterday killed a 3-year-old girl and a 74-year old woman. Earlier a man was washed from a crumbling embankment into the flood near Fredericksburg and two persons were killed when their car crashed on a rain-slick highway.

1952 Seen As Worst Year For Polio In U. S.

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said last night that 1952 may be this country's worst polio year.

The foundation said the incidence rate so far was 76 per cent above last year and 4 per cent above that for the same period in 1949, the year of this country's worst polio epidemic.

RUSSIAN Vice Premier Georgi Malenkov (above) has been designated as the man to deliver the central committee report to the Communist 19th all-union party congress in Moscow Oct. 5. International political experts view Malenkov as a possible successor to Stalin, but do not believe such a change will occur this soon. The congress is scheduled to do away with the Politburo and replace it with a Praesidium. Whoever is chosen Praesidium chairman likely would succeed Stalin.

Yugoslavia, Big 3 Confer On Trieste

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslavia conferred with the Western Big Three yesterday on the future of Trieste, Adriatic seaport which has been a bone of contention between the Italians and Yugoslavs.

Conferring with Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler were the British and French ambassadors, Sir Ivor Mallet and Philippe Baudet, and Jacob D. Beam, U. S. charge d'affaires.

LONDON (AP) — Some landlords caught between Britain's low rent ceilings and high housing repair standards — are bribing bums to take over their property.

Alex Ling, who presided at a meeting yesterday of the Executive Committee of the National Federation of Property Owners, said he knew of about 30 such cases. A. G. Anderson told the committee he had used the method to dump several run-down houses for their owners.

By paying a tramp a few pounds to accept title to an old house, Anderson explained, "future liability is thus escaped, and the property is abandoned, leaving the local council either to take it over or let it fall down."

The property owners association is asking the government to review laws which have kept rents on unfurnished houses and apartments in Britain frozen at virtually the pre-war level. Much of these meager returns are eaten up as a result of strict laws requiring landlords to keep their houses in repair.

Actor Is Sued For $13,500 In Alimony

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Screen actor John Ireland was sued for $13,500 in back alimony by his former wife, Mrs. Elaine Ruth Ireland.

Mrs. Ireland's Superior Court complaint said Ireland promised to pay her $250 monthly for the support and education of their children, John Anthony, 10, and Peter Roy, 6. Since March 12, 1948, she says Ireland has neglected and refused to keep up the payments. Ireland is now wed to actress Joanne Dru.

Little League Teams Planned

Boosters To Sponsor Village Endeavor

COLUMBIANA—A Little League of baseball teams composed of players not more than 12 years of age is planned for Columbiana next summer by the Booster Club, which will seek sponsors for four teams.

The club decided at its September meeting in the High School building Wednesday evening to undertake the project, and requests anyone interested to contact the president, W. B. Longshore. A film of Little League baseball was shown by Harry Eberhardt.

Tickets were given out for the Booster membership drive toward a goal of 400. The new High School principal W. G. Gloss, and Coaches Homer Pyle, Richard Berryman and Waldo Ward talked on prospects for the year in athletics, and especially the football season which Columbiana will open with Poland at Firestone Park at 7:45 tonight.

It was decided to change the meeting time from the second Wednesday of every month to the first Wednesday, which will make Oct. 1 the date of the next meeting.

ALL TEACHERS in the Columbiana schools were present at the first meeting of the Grade School Mothers Club in the High School Wednesday evening.

Reports on the bake sale during the fair and the dance review of Billy Ehrhart's dance pupils showed that nearly $190 was realized. ly $188 as eld.haclub

The club has not decided on its school projects for the year, the lighting modernization program in the grades in the old part of the High School building having been completed.

Supt. D. W. Bailey spoke of the crowded conditions in the High School building due to the steady growth of the town and emphasized the importance of renewing for operating expenses the five-mill levy at the November election. He said increased needs are a serious problem. Principal Gloss also spoke. Mrs. Virginia Felger, from the public library, talked on children's books.

Mrs. W. B. Arn, special assistant to Miss Helen Lindsay, health director in the civil defense organization, asked for volunteers to help among the school children with the blood typing project to come up soon. A number of the grade mothers volunteered, and Mrs. Arn hopes to enlist the Business & Professional Women's Club, the Legion Auxiliary and other organizations.

Mrs. Clyde Douglas, president of the Grade Mothers Club, has appointed standing committees, of which the chairmen are: Mrs. Thomas Woodward, membership; Mrs. Francis Armbrust, publicity; Mrs. Ernest Wilhelm, social; Mrs. Francis Fellers, auditing; Mrs. Lewis Way, school board.

PARKVIEW INN at Canfield was the scene of a beautifully-appointed wedding announcement party Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Clarence Shontz of 59 Duquesne St., Columbiana, entertained to announce the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Anna Mary Shontz to Dr. Lewis A. Shepperd of New York City.

At the 1 p.m. luncheon, places were laid for 24 guests. Summer flowers were the table decorations, and place cards announced the approaching nuptials. The afternoon was spent at bridge and canasta. Out-of-town guests were from Alliance, Louisville and Winona. No date has been set for the wedding.

Firesone American Legion Post is chartering a bus to take members of the Columbiana American Legion Junior baseball of the county league to Cleveland, Sunday for the game between the Indians and the New York Yankees. Don Young, general manager of the team is buying the tickets for team members. The bus load will include 20 players.

Pandora Rebekah Lodge will meet Monday evening in the former industrial arts department in the High School building instead of Midway Grange hall, as first planned.

Restaurant Owners Seek Price "Relief"

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — The Ohio State Restaurant Association has appealed to the Office of Price Stabilization for "immediate relief" from what it termed "present pressures of the rising food index."

The resolution said "thousands of restaurant operators in the State of Ohio are experiencing great hardships in operating their establishments on a profitable basis under existing price regulations."

More than 50 per cent of food items purchased by restaurants have been decontrolled by OPA, the resolution said, adding that as a result the cost of many food items have been materially increased to restaurant operators.

Clothes, Cell Switch Free Wrong Man

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — A switch in clothes, a switch in prison cells and a switch in jail guards resulted in the wrong man getting his freedom from Northampton County prison here.

Here's the story as Warden E. C. Gackenback tells it:

State police arrested Lewis Rosico, 19, of Detroit, his wife, Irene, 18, and a friend, Robert Van Valen, 21, Scranton, Pa., in nearby Portland Tuesday on charges of stealing $30 from a gas station cash drawer while the attendant filled their car with gasoline.

After a hearing, Justice of the Peace Clifford Sebring said he'd free the trio if they reimbursed the gas station and paid court costs. However, he added that Rosico would have to remain in custody because he was reported AWOL from the Lackland (Tex.) Air Force Base.

The $30 and costs were paid Wednesday night and Van Valen and Mrs. Rosico were released.

Last night, 24 hours later, the warden disclosed that the two men had changed clothes and switched cells shortly after they were placed in the jail Wednesday afternoon. The cell doors are not locked until evening. Guards, who came on in the evening, did not know the identity of the two men except as to which cell each was in.

Van Valen is being held without bail on a charge of aiding and abetting a prison break.

Batista Pardons Man Who Spoke Against Him

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — President Fulgencio Batista has pardoned a politician who was fined $1,000 Wednesday for an anti-government speech on television.

In his decree yesterday to free Emilio Ochoa, the President said he had demonstrated the government "is not guided by any spirit of political persecution."

Ochoa's attorney, however, said the government was forced to pardon him because of a "nation-wide wave of popular indignation."

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Oleta O'Connor Yates, convicted California Communist, was freed from jail today after U. S. Judge Paul J. McCormick approved a Court of Appeals order which released her on her own recognizance of four counts of criminal contempt.

Mrs. Yates was jailed last week by Federal Judge William C. Mathes on the four counts of court citations. She was cited when she refused to answer certain questions put to her during the trial.

Mrs. Yates was one of 14 California Communists convicted of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States government. The 14 were sentenced to five years imprisonment and fines of $10,000 each.

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — A new father, on his way to see his new daughter, walked right through the new glass front at Washington County Hospital yesterday.

Charles B. Carter explained bright lights shining in the hospital lobby kept him from seeing there was a glass panel there.

Mother and daughter are doing fine. Father, well, he'll be all right after a few cuts heal.

Washington Way

This being the climax of the crabgrass season, it should be interesting to the foes of this lawn menace that in Washington, D. C., they cultivate the stuff.

Any visitor to Washington can see with his own eyes numerous crews of the kind typical of government maintenance mowing and watering crabgrass lawns. There is little but crabgrass in the lawns surrounding many of the multi-million-dollar edifices of federal power, especially the U.S. Department of Agriculture layout.

Incidentally, the Department of Agriculture will tell you what to do about crabgrass if you ask. But remember that Washington is cultivating what you are trying to get rid of, which will help to explain many things.

It's Different In November

If one thing needs to be remembered this year in September, it's the fact that voting day is in November.

It will take some unnatural and unreasonable pressure off the advisers of Gen. Eisenhower if their candidate is given a chance to develop his campaign strength by slow degrees.

Obviously, the general is not going to be able to think of anything to say or do that will even up the tables with the glib-tongued governor of Illinois. Gov. Stevenson will oue-wisecrack him and oue-orate him.

But being president of the United States is not a project of wisecracking and oratory. It is a crushing responsibility of administration. When the showdown comes in November, the choice will lie between the characters of two American citizens.

Gen. Eisenhower has nothing to fear from comparison with Gov. Stevenson on that score. It requires no polls or samplings to make it clear that the ordinary citizen is gravely concerned about the quality of national leadership.

As a successor to Harry Truman and a loyal member of the ins, Gov. Stevenson would rely on the same people who have betrayed the public trust with monkey business in the Bureau of Internal Revenue and red-codelling in the State Department.

Gen. Eisenhower would work with a new broom.

There have been times when Rep. George Bender's notions of political publicity have been too corny for any good use. But the new-broom idea which Bender sprang on the Eisenhower group when it visited Cleveland is a natural.

By November, if there is anyone who hasn't made up his mind about the need for a change in Washington, a vote for the new broom will be infinitely more important than a quibble over who makes the better stump speech.

Another Adage Fades

It was a matter of no importance but considerable interest that Mississippi voters disapproved an adage while Rep. Rankin was being retired involuntarily by his constituents last Tuesday.

It is feasible in Mississippi to eat your cake and have it too.

Though the referendum on whether or not to abandon statewide prohibition was in favor of remaining dry, Mississippi will continue to be wet.

It will collect some $4 million each year on the legal sale of beer and wine and about $1½ million a year on the illegal sale of some $12 million worth of stronger stuff.

It will not affront its ardent dries, nor will it inconvenience its thirsty wets. It will not have the authorized sale of strong drink to its large numbers of colored people on its conscience, but it will collect a 10 per cent "black market" tax on bootleg beverages. The black-market collector, who is privileged to pocket 10 per cent of the gross, is not interested in enforcing the law; his job is to collect the tax due for disobeying the law.

In Mississippi, one of two states still dry—the other Oklahoma—the adage reads: You can legalize your schnapps and drink them too, with taxes for a chaser.

Unexpected Returns

If Bill Veeck was deliberately trying to rub salt into wounds, he couldn't have succeeded better than in the case of the Cleveland Indians. The Indians are fighting mad.

In the three game series against the St. Louis Browns last weekend, the Tribe made a clean sweep. They were out for revenge and played baseball up to the hilt.

If the "crying" records and pieces of tattered canvas that Veeck used to taunt the Indians for protesting the Labor Day loss to the Browns—and the weatherman—turned the Tribe from a fighting team into the "fightingest" team in the American League, Veeck will have done his former team a favor of unestimable value.

The harvest will be in October.

Anti-Communism

By DAVID LAWRENCE

McCarthy Reelection Proves Its A Live Issue

WASHINGTON
The "left wing" which has been trying for months to gloss over and belittl Communist infiltration in the United States government got a shock at the polls in Wisconsin.

About 500,000 persons in the Republican party gave Senator Joseph McCarthy, crusader against communistic infiltration, a vote of confidence. He polled 80,000 more votes than all the other Republican and Democratic aspirants for the senatorial nomination put together—a remarkable majority. His party majority was in excess of 250,000.

What is significant is that the Wisconsin senator did this with a minimum of campaigning, while his opponent engaged in a "talkathon" and aired on the radio every bit of ammunition available to him from all possible sources which had ganged up in what appears to have been the most sensational piece of character assassination ever known in politics. It was participated in by "left wing" groups in all parts of the country.

Thinking that the American people would discredit McCarthy's charges if McCarthy himself were discredited, the attack was of such a vicious personal nature that undoubtedly the Wisconsin senator benefited, as often happens in such cases, from what is called the "martyr vote." Senator McCarthy was recovering from an operation but his opponents kept up a bombardment even while he was unable to campaign in his own behalf.

SENATOR MCCARTHY'S majority was bigger than expected, and unquestionably the American Legion, and various patriotic societies and other groups lined up against Communist influence in America got out much of the vote in every precinct.

But, with all the attention the anti-Communist issue got, something else unquestionably added to McCarthy's vote. It was the anti-war feeling which the Wisconsin electorate has manifested in the past. The Korean War is far from popular and McCarthy has been hammering away at the idea that American boys are in Korea and lots more are about to be drafted soon to fight a war lost by the pro-Communist policies of the department of state prior to Korea. It is the war issue which contributed dramatization to the Communist issue.

The "left wing" criticism of McCarthy has overreached itself. This writer has never agreed with some of McCarthy's inferences or conclusions on certain cases which he has brought to public attention, notably the case of General Marshall. But it must be conceded that the Wisconsin senator has done more than any one person in public life, with the possible exception of Senator McCarran of Nevada, Democrat, to expose the Communist influences in our government.

An eastern metropolitan newspaper said editorially the other day: "If McCarthy's wild charges had resulted in the apprehension—or even the detection—of a single proved spy, there might have been a shadow of excuse for his methods but we have yet to see one real contribution to the safety or security of our country for which he can fairly take credit."

The answer is that if Senator McCarthy had done nothing else but to force out of the State Department the few who have been fired in recent months or been compelled to resign for disloyalty since he began his crusade, he would be entitled to much credit. But, in addition to this, it was McCarthy who led the fight in the senate against dropping the charges which the Tydings committee "whitewashed." The senate ordered another investigation, and anyone who wants to read what the senate judiciary committee wrote in its report—which was approved without a single opposition vote—he can get it by writing to the government printing office in Washington, which has for sale at a nominal cost the report submitted to the Senate on July 5, 1952, by the McCarran committee.

THIS REPORT, written by eminent lawyers in the senate—Republicans and Democrats—corroborates almost all the important charges made by McCarthy. It will be recalled that McCarthy said originally that his crusade stood, or fell on one case in particular—and the senate committee now says of that individual that he was the "conscious, articulate instrument of the Soviet conspiracy."

While this report has received little attention from the "left wing," it has made a profound impression on all who have suspected that there is more to the Communist issue than meets the eye and that it cannot be brushed off by just fuming about "McCarthyism."

Extremists often use deplorable tactics and methods in public affairs but extremists sometimes serve a useful purpose to alert us against evils, especially when, as a consequence of our lack of vigilance about the Communist influence inside our government, China has been lost to the free world and more than 110,000 American boys have had to shed their blood in far-off Korea. The Wisconsin election should make General Eisenhower realize that anti-Communism is a live issue in America today.

Roving Reports By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What do you do with your old New Year's resolutions?

For years I used to write mine down the first of each January—and manage conveniently to lose them by the first of February. The natural result was: out of sight, out of mind.

This spring, however, while cleaning out my desk drawers I found a wrinkled, yellowing sheet of paper. It was my New Year's resolutions for 1940, and the last paragraph read:

"... And I promise to get my stripped weight down to 170 pounds, and be more obedient to my wife."

Frances, reading over my shoulder, said comfortingly: "Well, Rover, you and Joe Stalin certainly keep your promises, don't you?"

I weighed on a drug store scales that day and got back a card that said "206." Allowing about six pounds for clothes, I was an over-plump 200—30 pounds higher than my target of 12 years ago.

Well, I decided right then to do something about it. And—as the sports writers say—the rest is history. A stringent diet of things like poached eggs, ground beef, and salads made of several varieties of wide-bladed grass has put me right back to where I wanted to be in 1940.

The same drugstore scales today told me I had hit the 170-pound level and added: "You have a judicial mind." I admire that little old weighing machine. Sometimes it is pounds foolish, but it is always penny-wise. It never says an unkind thing to anybody. One day I put a cent into it and it failed to work. I shook it angrily and slapped it in its glass face, and out tumbled a card that said: "You always keep your emotions under control and get full value for every cent you spend."

How do you like that for a machine turning its other cheek? Why can't we all be as kind as weighing machines?

Many fatties wonder what life would be like if they shed their excess blubber. Here are a few results in my case:

1. People used to be able to follow me around the office by the trail of buttons that popped off my vest. Today I have to take two long steps before my slackened coat begins to move.

2. My wife formerly upbraided me: "Every husband on this floor carries out the garbage to the incinerator but you." And I replied, "I'm too tired. Take it out yourself—it's yours. I don't leave anything on my plate." Now I don't mind carrying out the garbage at all. (There isn't much, anyway, as Frances went on a diet, too.)

3. I used to huff and puff climbing the steps of a bus. But the other night I lasted half way through a waltz.

4. I used to waddle when I walked like a ship in a rising sea. Now I slither along like a lean tiger—if you don't count its two front feet.

5. Chairs feel harder. With your padding gone, you can't sit still so long. So you get up and get your work done quicker.

6. A piece of buttered bread, a blob of mashed potatoes, are as beautiful as a sunset. When I sneak a dish of ice cream now, I feel more devilish than I did in college when I kept a sorority girl out after midnight.

But the best thing about dieting is it helps baldness. When you lose weight you shrink all over, including your scalp. Thus your bald spot looks smaller. Nobody else may notice it, but you do.

My ambition now is to drop from 170 pounds to about 50 pounds. I figure at that weight my scalp will have shrunk so much I'll look like I'm wearing a con-skin cap. That's my real goal.

Looks Like a Busy Fall

The Policing Of Movies

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Roy M. Brewer, chairman of the Hollywood A. F. L. Film Council, is one of the better labor leaders of the country. Devoted to the preservation of the American civilization, he has driven communists and other subversives out of his union by exposure of their methods and tactics.

Brewer has addressed a letter to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, replies to Brewer's proposal:

"... it would appear that the unions, controlling as they do the physical operation necessary to the projection of films, might well be able to preclude the showing of any films in which identified communists or communist sympathizers were involved.

"Such action probably would be more desirable than a bill barring importation of such pux."

ALTHOUGH it is possible for Brewer's union to do what Jackson proposes, that is, to withdraw the operators of projection machines when pictures including subversives appear among the personnel, Mr. Jackson's idea is altogether wrong. He would delegate to a labor union, albeit an excellent one, police powers.

His committee has existed since 1938 and has held hearings that have produced millions of words of evidence with the sole objective of informing itself in preparation for the writing of suitable legislation. That is the only reason for the existence of his committee. When a responsible labor union official, one who has supported the committee's purposes, proposes a necessary act of legislation, Mr. Jackson ducks the problem and puts it to the union to perform the work of the government.

The proposition is particularly unfortunate because the criticism that has been made against the anti-communist group in Hollywood has been that they usurp the police powers of the government. Congressman Jackson apparently prefers the boycott, the picket line and the strike to proper legislation by Congress and the enforcement of the law by due process.

THE UNION ought not to be placed in the position of assuming police responsibilities. Already, Brewer has stated that his union will be forced to prevent the showing of a motion picture, "Encounter," made in Italy. He wrote to the House committee:

"... we are communicating with the exhibitor organizations throughout America asking them not to purchase it. If both of these methods fail, we shall then initiate measures to call upon our fellow unionists in the projection rooms of American theatres not to show it. We firmly believe that in each case loyal persons involved will respond to our appeal. But this type of police work is a responsibility which should not rest upon private citizens. It is the duty of the government and it should be initiated in congress through your committee."

The motion picture industry is purging itself of communists in Hollywood. The various programs in this direction will fail, if communists and their sympathizers can profit by making motion and television pictures in foreign countries.

The Doctor Answers

The easy explanation for something which occurs in the human body is not necessarily the right one.

Q—I am a young woman of 33 and have suffered four years on and off because of too much acid in my urine. I can't go away much because of it, and don't want to spend the rest of my life sitting around at home. Have you any suggestions?

A—The urine is normally more often slightly acid than it is basic or alkaline. It seems quite certain that the explanation of this correspondent's difficulty is something else than just an acid reaction of the urine.

A physician's job is to search for and then correct what is really responsible for the symptoms which are evidently distressing, but are described so vaguely in this inquiry.

Q—A dear relative has multiple myeloma. Would you please discuss this?

A—This is a particular kind of tumorous disease which locates in the bones. Several treatments, including the use of X-rays over the areas of the bone involvement, and use of ACTH, appear to bring at least some temporary relief.

Q—Will you please write about asparagus? I have often heard it argued that it was not good for one because of the odor.

A—There is frequently an odor to the urine after a person has eaten asparagus, but this has no effect one way or another on the health.

Q—I have for years been a frequent and heavy pipe smoker, but lately have not obtained the enjoyment I formerly did. I wonder if this means I have definite blood vessel disease?

A—Failure to enjoy smoking as much as one did formerly is not necessarily a sign of blood vessel disease. If you do not enjoy it any more, why not give it up?

Q—Recently I suffered an attack of buritis in my arm and shoulder. Now I am told I have calcium deposits. Would you please tell me what these are?

A—Sometimes following inflammation of a bursa, which is a little pocket generally near one of the joints, calcium salts will be deposited. Just why this should occur is not entirely clear, but in some fashion it appears to be one of nature's reactions to the irritation. Occasionally, the calcium deposits have to be removed by surgery, if less radical measures prove ineffective.

Q—Is the use of benzedrine harmful to the body if taken in the form of ¼ tablet daily?

A—This is a fairly small dose, and it is doubtful that it would produce harm. There have, however, been a few cases of apparent habit-formation resulting from the long-continued use of benzedrine—probably in considerably larger doses, however.

Once Over

Telephone Service

The Vienna telephone service now offers a fairy tale, a joke of the day, stock quotations, a daily dinner menu, an information bureau and a tone on which to tune a violin. That's nothing new, America tried that out years ago back home in Whortleberry Creek. It flopped. The bedtime story operator gave us Mother Goose when we asked for Hans Christian Andersen. We can remember vividly our experience with the forerunner of the Vienna service. Central had given us the Anderson Pants Pressing Company when we asked for Andersen, the fairy tale man, and we had called for the complaint operator.

"Look, I am trying to get Cinderella," we said.

"Zinda who?" she asked.

"Not Zinda. Cinder. You know... Cinderella and the glass slipper."

"We have no Max Schipper, but there's an Irving Schipper," said the complaint operator.

"Slipper," we repeated. "Remember Cinderella? ... the broom? ... and the mean step-sisters who made her do all the dirty work around the house?"

"You want the Round House?" asked the operator.

"Look," we shouted. "We just want Cinderella ... the pumpkin coach! ... and the six mice ... huh? ... yes, six mice."

"That number has been changed," she insisted, as we tore our hair.

"OKAY, make it seven mice ... They were turned into a team of dapple gray coach horses, remember? ... And the four lizards were turned into footmen," we argued.

"Are you sure Mr. Lizard has a telephone?" demanded the operator. "I'll give you information."

We didn't get anywhere with Information. We explained carefully that we wanted Andersen's Cinderella but she gave us Aesop's "The Hare and the Tortoise" by mistake. (Crossed wires or something.) We offered to settle for "The Sleeping Beauty" but she said that number had been disconnected. Finally we got somebody at the phone company who understood the complete fairy tale—right time, weather report, stock quotation, daily-joke service and connected us with an operator who began:

"Once upon a time there was a very beautiful girl who lived with two wicked step-sisters who forced her to do all the laborious work around the market which opened strong but sold off around the noon hour on a rumor Glass Slipper would pass the dividend. This will be followed by lower temperatures tonight with possible rain at the stroke of 12 and the one about the farmer's daughter and the six mice. So when Lizard convertibles were oversubscribed Cinderella ran from the ballroom, with slowly rising temperatures, and lost one slipper, following yesterday's loss of two points ex-dividend."

"How did it come out?" we asked.

"Bluebeard and the Ugly Duckling married Joe Miller and lived happily ever after in a low-pressure area between the Alleghenies and General Motors. Stop jiggling the hook. The Gians won."

IT IS NOW CERTAIN that Adlai Stevenson has lost the shoe-repairmen's vote. . . . Neva Jane Langley, the new Miss America, is on tour and if she shows up in any city the same night like or Adlai are making an appearance they are sunk. . . . Mrs. America has also been named, and she is Mrs. Evelyn Sherk of Irvington, N. J. . . . But if a husband in such a case gets any idea this makes him Mister America there can be serious trouble. . . . Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca have some of the best sketches on video, say we. . . . Important news in the religious world is that both the Protestants and Roman Catholics are cooperating in Bible Weeks this month. . . . "Dollar Crisis" Talks Foreseen

Churchill May Meet With Next President

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new "dollar crisis" conference between Britain and the United States appears to be shaping up for early next spring.

Prime Minister Churchill himself may fly to the United States then to talk with the next American president about Britain's ideas for new moves to strengthen the Western world's finances.

Nothing definite about the date for any such high-level meeting has been decided upon. But American and British financial and trade experts are already busy behind the scenes exploring possible proposals for action.

The present plan calls for government agencies to draft a comprehensive report summing up the West's economic problems. This is to be laid on the desk of the new president after he assumes office Jan. 20 along with alternative proposals for United States action to meet the situation.

Officials here believe it likely that Churchill will want to discuss these problems personally with the next president. If he doesn't come himself, it is believed virtually certain he will send Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and Britain's ambassador to the exchequer, R. A. Butler, to talk with the next American secretary of state and treasury.

President Truman, questioned about this at his news conference yesterday, said any such discussion would necessarily be with the new administration and that he knew nothing about it.

The backstage study now going on in American government agencies seems to stem from a growing belief that America's allies may have to halt their rearmament drive unless new financial props are found for their shaky economies.

Britain and France already have cut back their rearmament schedules and American defense experts fear any further cuts in arms expenditures may seriously hurt the West's master plan for defense against Communism.

What new steps can be adopted to bolster Western finances is not yet certain. Congress appropriated a total of $6,447,730,750 for military, economic and technical aid to nearly 40 countries during the 12-month period ending next July 1.

Altogether, nearly 26 billion dollars has been provided by the United States to friendly countries during the past four years, beginning with the un-precedented Marshall Plan for Western European recovery.

The present thinking is that the foreign aid program must be continued for several more years but that additional steps are urgently needed to make certain that Western European countries can put their financial houses in order in the foreseeable future.

Enrollment In School Tops Last Year

LEETONIA—Enrollment at Kindergarten which opened Monday at South Side School Building with both morning and afternoon sessions has reached 51, according to Supt. of Schools D. D. Rummel. Children are enrolling each day. Mrs. Frank Painter is the teacher.

Enrollment at high school this year is 258 with 18 more enrolled than last year. Enrollment in the seventh and eighth grades is 128 or 10 less than last year. Washingtonville Building enrollment is 148 or one less than last year. South Side Building enrollment is 245 or three less than last year and enrollment at the North Side Elementary is 53 as compared to 68 last year.

Check Bin For Weevil Infestation, Is Advice

Floyd Lower, Columbiana County extension agent, urges farmers to check grain bins for the beginning of weevil infestation and to fumigate with a carbon compound if any weevil are found.

Information of fumigants can be obtained at the extension office at the Lisbon Courthouse.

Lower's office also announced that fall applications can be made to new stands of clover and alfalfa with the expectation of getting practical control of spittlebugs, according to T. H. Parks, extension entomologist at Ohio State University.

Spraying in the spring is better control than fall treatment, but the latter is suggested in certain cases such as fields of new seedlings which will be pastured early in the spring.

Kentucky State Fair Grandstand Burns

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The "big show" went on as scheduled today despite the fire which routed 3,000 spectators and did an estimated $80,000 damage to the state fair grounds grandstand yesterday.

There were no casualties.

A late summer wind fed the hungry sparks from a burning cigarette lodged between planks and the dry timbers of the 50-year-old structure, and caused the on-lookers of a free water carnival to scramble for safety.

When the fire began, the State Fair Board was in session, discussing fireproofing plans for the new fairgrounds.

HERE TO STAY

After functioning experience of two years in Salem, Salem College has proved itself a school wanted in Salem and its trading territory.

For this reason, the board of directors of Penn-Ohio University has decided to give Salem College a permanent home by purchasing the building pictured above—a home in the institutional part of town.

This is indicative of permanency. Salem College is here to stay—to be a part of Salem Community and area.

But Salem College is also here to grow and to become more useful to the people of the Salem trading area. The extent of that usefulness will depend largely upon the number and quality of the young men and women who come to Salem College to be educated and trained in useful careers.

WHAT IS SALEM COLLEGE?

Salem College is not a mere name; it is a real fact.

Salem College, while it has a strong Business School, should not be thought of as a Salem Business School, but as Salem College, with a Business School, a Dressmaking School, an Adult High School, and a Department in which are taught College subjects in the Arts, Sciences and Languages.

Salem College is a College or unit of an area-wide institution—Penn-Ohio University, with headquarters in Youngstown but with a unit or branch college in Salem.

While Salem College is not the legal successor of the former Salem Business College, still it is its logical successor.

Therefore, any of the graduates of the old Salem Business College, will on their application, be accepted into the Alumni Association of Salem College and Penn-Ohio University, and its students will be given appropriate standing according to their accomplishments.

SALEM BOOK STORE

Salem College will soon develop its new SALEM BOOK STORE, which it now announces.

PRINT and LETTER SHOP

SALEM COLLEGE will continue its Print & Letter Shop, to serve the business interests of this section. We already have a fine and appreciative list of customers, whom we have served during the past year.

Students may register all next week, afternoons and evenings.

Helen Leona Williams Wed To Dr. Peter Robert Cibula

Helen Leona Williams, daughter of Joseph Malone Williams and the late Mrs. Williams of Nashville, Tenn., became the bride of Dr. Peter Robert Cibula, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cibula of 408 S. Lincoln Ave., Monday evening at the Belmont Baptist Church in Nashville.

Rev. Purdy, D.D., performed the double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. Mr. Williams gave his daughter in marriage before an altar banked with palms, white gladioli and white tuberoses. "Because," "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" were sung. The organist played traditional wedding music during the ceremony.

The bride's waist-length gown was of blush pink, fashioned with nylon net over satin with shirred insets of net in the skirt. The fitted bodice was complemented by a high net neckline. Tucked net formed a berth-affect shoulder line over the long sleeves which came to points at the wrists.

The bride's shoulder-length veil was held in place with a halo of tucked net studded with pearls. Streamers of white tuberoses flowed from the bride's prayer book upon which rested a white orchid.

Miss Phyllis Corliesen of Nashville, who graduated from nurses training with the bride, was maid of honor. Her waist-length blue net over taffeta was matched with bonnet and mitts of the same color. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and Rubrum lilies.

After graduation from St. Thomas School of Nursing in Nashville, the bride was employed at the Cleveland Clinic Hospital. The groom is a graduate of Salem High School, Adelbert College and Western Reserve University Medical School. He is now interning at North Side Hospital, Youngstown.

Seafood - Avacado Salad Symphony

Symphony of salads, with their gay colors and cool, appetizing flavors, set the tone of all warm-weather meals.

A salad that strikes a sustaining chord in a major theme at dinner-time in this sea-avacado platter, in which a trio of seafoods makes a pleasing accompaniment to avocado halves. And don't forget—you'll need to be prepared for encores, too!

SEAFOOD-AVOCADO SALAD WITH DRESSING
1 (6½-ounce) can lobster meat
Remove any bits of shell from lobster and crabmeat and break into bite-size pieces. Reserve claw meat of lobster and a few whole shrimp for garnish. Cut remaining shrimp in pieces. Combine lobster, crabmeat and shrimp. Add just enough French dressing to coat generously and chill.

Just before serving, halve avocados, remove pit and fill with seafood mixture. Miss Mary Brinker Becomes Bride Of Cpl. William C. Wolz

St. Jacob Reformed Church near Lisbon was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary L. Brinker, daughter of Mrs. Rollin L. Brinker, of the Leetonia-Columbiana Rd., and Cpl. William C. Wolz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Wolz of near East Palestine.

Rev. E. D. Fager, church pastor, performed the ceremony at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Mrs. Vivian Tullis of Salem presided at the organ and Miss Dorothy Stacey of New Middletown sang the nuptial melodies.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Arch Brinker, wore a hoop-skirted ballerina gown of white lace and nylon net. A crown of orange blossoms held her veil in place and lace mitts covered her hands. She carried a white Bible covered with gardenias and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary R. Wolz, sister of the groom, wore a strapless gown of aqua net with a stole. Yellow pompons and net banded her hair and she carried a colonial bouquet of pastel-colored gladioli.

Misses Ila Brinker and Betty Brinker, sisters of the bride and bridesmaids, appeared in ballerina-length gowns of yellow and pink net respectively. Gladioli were used in their bouquets.

The flower girl, Becky Ann Stacey, niece of the bride, wore aqua net to harmonize with the gown of the maid of honor and she carried a basket of flower petals.

Bobby Wolz, brother of the groom, was ring bearer. Cpl. John Stone of Cleveland was best man and ushers were Don Brinker, brother of the bride, and Carl Stacey Jr. Cpl. Stone served with Cpl. Wolz in Germany and they are now stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind. The bride's mother wore a purple dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Wolz chose royal blue with black velvet accessories and yellow carnations.

For their honeymoon east, the bride traveled in a brown suit with gold and brown accessories and a bridal corsage.

The couple welcomed friends and relatives to the reception in the church and the wedding cake was the center of attraction at the bride's table.

When the opening whistle blows for the start of the Salem-Bellaire football game Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in Bellaire Stadium, two squads weighing approximately 168 pounds apiece will clash in their inaugural grid classic of the 1952 season, Salem playing their first opening game away in 50 years.

Boosters Hear Talk On New Football Rules

New football rules in effect this season were explained by William Pauley, president of the Mahoning Valley Football Officials Association, when he spoke to approximately 40 members attending the Boosters Club meeting Thursday night in the Memorial Building.

Mr. Pauley said any player who uses his elbows and arms in blocking will be thrown out of the game and his team penalized 15 yards.

Fred Cope, Salem High School faculty manager, made arrangements to take the football team to the Oct. 25 football game between the University of Pittsburgh and West Virginia University. The Boosters will pay for the tickets and provide transportation for the boys.

Ben Barrett, Salem High football coach, showed the equipment furnished each player, pointing out that one suit costs $143. Shoes alone, he said, cost $22 a pair.

Mike Garcia Boomed For "Most Valuable;" Pennant Races Tighten

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's pennant drive and the Mike Garcia boom for most valuable player are swinging along hand in hand.

With "The Bear" boasting a string of 28 consecutive scoreless innings, the onrushing Indians yesterday crept within one half game of the idle New York Yankees.

Cleveland's eighth straight win, longest streak of the year in the American League, was a 1-0 job by Garcia who allowed only two Philadelphia singles. It was his seventh shutout.

Six weeks ago Bobby Shantz of the Philadelphia A's seemed to have a lock on the American League MVP award. He still is the favorite but Garcia is lining up a torchlight parade of supporters.

While little Bobby failed five times in a row, reaching for win No. 23, Garcia has produced four straight wins to make the 20-grade. He is the third 20-game winner in the league, joining teammate Early Wynn and Shantz.

Heading into the showdown one-game series with the Yanks Sunday, Garcia looms as the likely Cleveland starter. The Indians now have 13 to play, the Yankees 14 more games.

The Yanks aren't the only leaders looking over their shoulders. Brooklyn is at it again with the New York Giants closing in.

When Brooklyn lost to Chicago, 11-7, yesterday and the Giants nipped Pittsburgh, 5-4, the Dodger lead dwindled to 3 1/2 games. The Brooks have 15 to play, the Giants 16.

A year ago the Giants were six games back on the morning of Sept. 12 and eight of them were on the losing side of the ledger.

Chicago, taking two of four from Brooklyn, piled up an early 9-0 lead that was more than enough to offset a grand slam homer by Andy Pafko and an eight-inning rally. Once again it was a story of inadequate pitching for the Dodgers with Billy Loes and Ben Wade taking their bumps in a seven-run fourth inning.

Seven errors were committed in the sloppy game that saw 22 hits including Hank Sauer's 37th homer, Roy Smalley's fifth and Pafko's 17th. All Dodger runs were unearned.

Al Dark and Sal Yvars hit homers for the Giants and Bob Elliott delivered two with a pinch single but they needed an error by catcher Joe Garagiola to get the winning run in the seventh.

Hoyt Wilhelm turned in another splendid relief job in his 62nd game to save Sal Maglie's 16th win. He allowed only one hit — a homer by Sonny Senerchia — in 2 2/3 innings. Maglie was nicked by Ralph Kiner's 34th home run.

Robin Roberts of the Phillies wrapped up his 24th, tops in the majors, by beating the St. Louis Cards, 3-2. The win gave the Phils two out of three over the Cards who switch operations to Brooklyn tonight for the first of a two-game series. The Giants play a day doubleheader with Cincinnati.

Washington took a fall out of third-place Chicago, 4-1, on Jackie Jensen's double, Jim Busby's triple, a walk and an error by Rocky Krsnich. Walt Masterson went all the way for his 10th win, beating Joe Dobson.

Walt Drogo smashed two towering homers and Jim Delsing came through with a game-winning pinch single for Detroit's 5-4 edge over the Boston Red Sox. Dave Madison pitched to only one batter in a brief relief job to get credit for the

Olympic Middleweight Champ In Pro Debut

NEW YORK (AP)—A prelim boy will steal the spotlight from the main events at St. Nicholas Arena tonight.

It's easy to understand when the "underneath" kid is Floyd Patterson, the Olympic middleweight champion from Brooklyn. He meets Eddie Godbold, a fair fighter with a poor record, in the six round semifinal.

The fast, hard-hitting Negro youngster is rated the best amateur prospect to come along since Sugar Ray Robinson did his fighting for trophies.

In the 10 round main event, which will be telecast by NBC slambang Sammy Giuliani of Stamford, Conn., faces Johnny Lombardo of Mt. Carmel, Pa., in a middleweight 10 rounder.

Pitching: Mike Garcia, Indians—

Blanked A's with two hits for seventh shutout, narrowing Yanks' lead to a half game.

The laws of England in the Middle Ages made the taking of interest on loaned money by a Christian illegal.

Victory, the Tigers' fourth straight. The Yankees and St. Louis were idle as were Boston and Cincinnati in the National.

The Yanks resume defense of their slim lead in Chicago tonight where they open a two-game series with the White Sox.

Fumbles, poor passing and running plagued the practice and brought this comment from Coach Woody Hayes:

"When you put inexperienced, less-played fellows with guys who are about average, the tempo of the two groups is different. Some boots are bound to occur. Those are the kind that kill you in a game and we've got to eliminate them."

Two Bucks were injured in the drill. Jim Reichenbach, Massillon guard, suffered a hip injury and will be out for about five days. Bob Roberts, Zanesville guard, is having trouble with a bad knee.

Garcia Likely Starter Against Yanks Sunday

Two Relievers Hold Key To NL Pennant

NEW YORK (AP) — Who will run out of gas first — Joe Black or Hoyt Wilhelm?

The fellow who knows the answer could make a good pick on the National League pennant winner.

With the pressure mounting every day Managers Chuck Dressen and Leo Durocher are quick to look to their bullpen for relief help. When he's in a tough spot Dressen calls for Black. Whenever he needs to get out of a jam Leo phones for Wilhelm.

Both the Dodgers' Black and the Giants' Wilhelm boast shiny 13-3 records. Either can, become "rookie of the year" if his club wins. But both must be getting tired.

Black went almost eight full innings against the Giants Monday afternoon. He had to help out Wednesday night. Wilhelm goes almost every day and sometimes twice a day. So far it's 62 games for Wilhelm, 49 for Black as compared to Jim Konstanty's modern record of 74 appearances for the Phils in 1950.

Black shows no signs of tiring.

The other day he came to Dressen with this story:

"Don't believe what you read in the papers. They say I'm tired. I'm not. I want to pitch whenever you need me."

Wilhelm is just as willing although his arm is a little heavy after all that steady work. He has been in the bullpen almost every day all season.

With only 3½ games separating the leading Dodgers from the chasing Giants, the pressure will be on the relief men more than ever.

Wilhelm is a sure thing to see action today when the Giants meet Cincinnati in a day double-header at the Polo Grounds.

Durocher can't afford to hold back a thing. Two day wins would clip the Dodger lead to 2½ games. Then if the Brooks should lose their Ebbets Field night game to St. Louis, it would be down to two games.

Open soon or goes down to the wire in another photo finish, it is likely to be decided on this question:

Who will run out of gas first — Joe Black or Hoyt Wilhelm?

Bear Wins 3rd Shutout In Row

Tribe Squeaks Past Philadelphia 1-0

CLEVELAND (AP) — The job of convincing Cleveland fans their club is on its way to a third American League pennant in 32 years is likely to fall on Mike Garcia against the New York Yankees Sunday.

"With that pitching, how can they lose?" The fans here say of their Tribe. But most of them go on to talk with wholesome respect for the world champions who still hold a half-game edge in spite of the Indians' current eight-game winning streak.

This skepticism may be reflecting in home attendance which should hit a million and a quarter tonight when Early Wynn hurls the opener of a two-game series against the Boston Red Sox. The crowds aren't turning out in pennant fever proportions. Thursday's 7,903 paid customers left the season figure more than a quarter million—or about 17 per cent—under last year.

But if the Tribe can avoid losing any ground between now and Sunday, then whip the Yankees, even the 'die-hards' will start worrying about how to get their mitts on World Series ducats.

The performance Garcia put on Thursday by blanking the Philadelphia Athletics 1-0 just about assured him the chance of starting Sunday's "big one," only game Cleveland has left against New York.

His two hits, won on second baseman Bob Avila's fourth-inning homer, put him in the 20-victory circle for the second consecutive year of his four-year major league career. It was his third straight shutout and gave him a chain of 28 scoreless innings to carry to the mound against the Bombers.

The league record of five consecutive shutouts was set in this month 48 years ago by G. Harris White of Chicago. Walter Johnson's 56 straight scoreless innings for Washington in 1913 doubled Garcia's present figure.

Garcia had to be good Thursday for Harry Byrd, first right-hander to oppose the Tribe since Sept. 1, allowed only five hits.

Larry Doby, the league's home-run leader, went hitless for the fifth game in a row and struck out for the 100th time this season.

Big Ten Is Loaded With Veteran Talent

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten is loaded with experienced talent for its man-hungry platoon-type football machines but chances are the 1952 championship will be decided by four or five key men.

If a fullback recovers from an illness . . . if a brilliant runner can be developed . . . if a couple of 1951 sensations continue to sparkle . . .

if any one of these things occurs it could spell championship for a particular school.

Pre-season estimates favor Illinois, Wisconsin and Purdue, in that order, with Ohio State, Michigan and possibly Northwestern definite contenders. Some, but not too much, improvement is expected at Iowa, Indiana and Minnesota.

Michigan State, which won't be eligible for title competition until next year, ranks above any of the conference schools. The Spartans were voted the top team in the country in the recent Associated Press poll. Illinois placed fifth and Wisconsin seventh.

Reds Make Final New York Swing

NEW YORK (AP) — The last chance is coming up for the Cincinnati Reds to be something more than just pushovers for the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Giants have won 14 of 19 games against the Reds this year and Brooklyn has won 16 of 20. Manager Rogers Hornsby indicated he'd use Ken Raffensberger and Bubba Church on the mound today. Harry Perkowski or rookie Niles Jordan will get the call Saturday.

Hornsby had considerable praise during Thursday's off-day gabfests for the play of Jim Greengrass, Johnny Temple and Hobie Landrith in the series with Boston.

for a purse of $400 to make Lisbon Day at the fair a complete success. Stockman was in the driver's seat for Silver Burch and was clocked at 2:16.

The third race, a 218 pace, went to Mickie Girl, owned by Armour Lloyd of Youngstown and ridden by Clyde Wollam Jr.

Mickie Girl placed third in the first heat and won the second heat and was awarded a trophy for the best time of 2:11.2. The purse was $400. Harry Caton of Lisbon, 80-year-old driver, was second in both heats. A veteran of 60 years as a driver, he was driving a horse owned by two Lisbon men.

No races are scheduled today but they will resume at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, with about 20 horses set to go in three races. The purses will total $1,200.

Saturday is East Liverpool Day and will feature afternoon harness racing and English horse show at 7 p.m. and will wind up the annual affair for another year.

GIVE GOVERNMENT LAND

WAVERLY, O. (P)—Three acres of the 6,500 acre tract on which the billion dollar atomic energy plant will be built won't have to be purchased by Uncle Sam. Orville M. (Dutch) Vulgamore and his two sons have deeded the three acres to the government as a "sentimental gift."

Best Wheat Planting Date Is Sept. 26

LISBON—Fly-free date for planting wheat in the county is Sept. 26, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent.

He said Hessian Fly is now well controlled and can be so kept by observance of the safe sowing date. Wheat seeded early may be seriously damaged and may also infest the neighborhood with the insect. Rye or winter barley can be planted as early as the farmers wish.

Ike

lion in the following fiscal year.

Taft added, "there are no differences between us that will make any great argument against Republican unity."

He went on to say it was the nature of the party system that members subordinate their views on incidental issues in order to agree on basic principles.

Will Carry Out Platform

The senator said he was "satisfied" Eisenhower would carry out the entire Republican campaign platform.

He said he had wished to state his own views after a personal meeting with the general in which both agreed that there was "one great fundamental issue between the Republican party and the Fair Deal, the New Deal and the Stevenson deal."

"The greatest threat to liberty is internal," he said.

Taft said he never had "changed my intentions" in referring to his statement after his Chicago defeat that he would do "everything possible" to assure Gen. Eisenhower's election.

However, he added, he had "no intention of abandoning the principles and friends" he has maintained and made during the years.

Saying Gen. Eisenhower agreed with him that limitations must be set to the extent of government power, he said the general "believes in the basic principles of the Taft-Hartley law and is opposed to its repeal."

He said they discussed amendments to the controversial labor bill which Sen. Taft himself has proposed.

He was asked what he thought about the proposal for a new "American party" made by Col. Robert R. McCormick, Chicago publisher.

Taft replied, "a new American party is not feasible in 1952."

Beyond the election, Taft would not make any predictions except to comment that third parties had not been very successful in the past.

Taft was asked if he had discussed with Eisenhower support of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, whose Communists-in-government charges have become a controversial issue.

Taft replied, "his name didn't come up in the conversation."

The Ohioan expressed his views by reading rapidly a seven-page typewritten statement in a mass press conference in the King's Crown Hotel.

More than 40 photographers and 60 reporters were on hand. Hearing was difficult when hotel guests and pedestrians from the street jammed into the room, some shouting for autographs and causing a constant hubbub.

Stevenson

crime and corruption until you clean up American civic and political life. . . . Government is like a pump, and what it pumps up is just what we are, a fair sample of the intellect, the ethics and the morals of the people, no better, no worse."

2. He, himself, has fought for clean government.

"I do not, I have not, nor will I condone, excuse or explain away wrong-doing or moral obliquity in public office, whoever the guilty or wherever they are stationed. I have had the satisfaction of firing and prosecuting a good many, and I mean from both parties."

3. Rascality is not confined to government.

"When you realize that American private business is swindled out of more than a billion dollars each year by its employees, from clerks to executives, it is not too remarkable, however deplorable, that government occasionally should be swindled."

4. Graft and thievery are not the only forms of corruption. "Perhaps the proper description is not 'corrupt' but 'expedient' for the legislator who will vote for all kinds of special interest bills to catch or hold some votes. Call that what you will, condone it as you please, even profit from it as you do now and then, its cost to you is infinitely greater than all of this thievery and rascality that captures the headlines."

5. Special interest groups can damage good government.

"Sound government ends when the leaders of special groups call the tune, whether they represent capital, labor, farmers, veterans, pensioners or anyone else."

Charles Taft Confers With GOP Of District

STUEBENVILLE — Charles P. Taft, Republican nominee for governor, met here yesterday with party leaders from the five counties comprising the 18th congressional district.

Plans were discussed for coordinating the Taft campaign with local programs.

"This is not just a Taft meeting," the GOP gubernatorial candidate stressed, "it is first a rallying point for the entire Republican ticket from Eisenhower and Senator Bricker on through to the county corner. We want to be sure that from such meetings go out the Republican leaders of each county, enthusiastic for the whole ticket and convinced that we must have a clean sweep in November." Taft declared.

Present from Columbiana County at the meeting were T. Emerson Smith, county chairman, and Mrs. Letha Asty, county chairwoman, State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel of Lisbon and State Rep. Delmar T. O'Hara.

Cast Of 30 To Appear In Elks Minstrels

A cast of 30 will take part in the Elks Cabaret Minstrels which are scheduled for Oct. 14 and 15 presentation in the Salem High School auditorium.

The Minstrels, for which rehearsals are under way, are sponsored by the Elks lodge as a benefit for the municipal swimming pool fund. The ticket sale will open Sept. 22, it is announced by Ralph Lipscomb, general manager.
